

Yoga Muse School Of Yoga
200-Hour Yoga Teacher Training Application
Hosted by Bridge Studio at Art of Awareness

Program Overview

Yoga Muse School of Yoga 200-hour Yoga Teacher Training is a 200-hour immersion program, registered with the Yoga Alliance and led by Mindy Miller Muse, MSW, ERYT500hr. This program will meet over a total of 11 weekends: nine- 2 day weekends and two-3 day intensives and will be hosted at Bridge Studio at Art of Awareness and will primarily meet in South Portland, Maine. Some Sessions and classes may meet in Kennebunkport, Maine at Yoga Muse School of Yoga. This 200 hour Yoga Alliance approved course is an introduction to the immense exploration of yoga. This course is open to yoga students from any background who are interested in becoming a yoga teacher, as well as those who simply want to deepen their yoga practice and understanding. This comprehensive training will include an emphasis on safely addressing the needs of individuals and unique populations and will include trauma sensitivity, welcoming diversity and adapting yoga postures for all bodies including bigger bodies and aging bodies. While participants will be encouraged to develop their own teaching style, this training will have an empowerment approach, where teachers are encouraged to promote student choices and encouragement to adapt yoga postures to suit unique/individual needs.

During this training, you will be expected to develop a home yoga practice, as well as attend at least 5 additional yoga classes at Yoga Muse School of Yoga (YMSY) and/or Bridge Studio at Art of Awareness (outside of the training dates and at no additional cost.) You will also be required to attend 3 additional classes in the community in various styles of Yoga. If you have not taken classes with Mindy before applying to this training, you will be required to take 1 to 2 complimentary classes with her prior to
